News of To-day.

The reported capture of Augusta, Ga., by Sherman, is believed to be a canard.

The pirate, Chickamauga, has been burning several vessels.

Beauregard has his head-quarters at Corinth, Miss., and the rebel army of that region, that was 75,000 strong one year since, now numbers only 40,000, including the forces of Taylor, Forrest, and Wheeler.

The Richmond papers claim that Forrest destroyed 4 gunboats, 11 steamers, and 20 barges, at Johnsonville, Tenn., besides immense stores; but we have later intelligence, and learn that the place is still in the hands of the Union forces. General Forrest planted a ten-gun battery on the opposite side of the river, and destroyed three iron clads and seven transports; and the total damage may reach one million dollars, as he bombarded the place 48 hours.

Richmond papers are very anxious as to Sherman's movements, and it is thought they are entirely unprepared for him.

The Richmond Whig says it is rumored that Hood took Decatur, Ala., and 8,000 prisoners. The bombardment of Charleston still continues steadily.

Ten Union war vessels and 78 transports are reported as at Hilton Head. General Butler and staff had gone to the army of the Potomac. Report has it that the President contemplates issuing another amnesty proclamation.

Extensive factories, rolling mills, and storehouses, have been destroyed at Rome, Ga.

On the 15th our outer works at Atlanta were attacked by 1,500 cavalry, who were easily beaten back.

Austria intends sending 7,000 troops to Maximilian's aid in Mexico. They will leave in January.

A Committee of the rebel Congress reports that Sheridan has burned thirty dwellings, four hundred and fifty barns, thirty-one mills, three factories, one furnace, one hundred miles of fencing; destroyed and carried off one hundred thousand bushels of wheat, fifty thousand bushels of corn, six thousand tons of hay, two thousand seven hundred cattle, same number of horses and four thousand hogs.

Rebel pickets made a severe attack on our lines before Richmond, in front of the second corps, but without effect. They say nothing of the army of the Potomac going into winter quarters.

The Richmond Examiner calls the capture of the Florida a contemptible Yankee trick and thinks they have no recourse, England and Brazil having suspended diplomatic relations, and France not being desirous of stirring up trouble; so it thinks Confederate cruisers in future had better visit only French and English ports.

Rumor says the President intends another amnesty proclamation; that Early and Longstreet have gone with 35,000 men to intercept Sherman; that Gen. Slaughter, rebel commander at Brownsville, Texas, has been reinforced with 3,060 men; and last, but not least, that New Orleans is excited and preparing for defense against Beauregard, who is expected to attack it with a large force.

Gen. Canby, after all, is not severely wounded.

Price is heard from on the retreat, and the Richmond papers claim that their forces under Breckinridge have defeated Gen. Gillem, and captured guns, prisoners and flags; but this is not confirmed.

CALLED A SCAMP.—The Victoria Chronicle advises us that C. M. Mayer, late of that place, in the collection business is a "thorough scamp." He came here, the Chronicle says, about the last of October, after "diddling" every one who trusted him. The following is given as his description:

He is about four feet five inches in height; sallow, weazen face; dark eyes and hair; thin dark whiskers, with a ferocious attempt at a moustache on his upper lip. When excited, speaks fast and expectorates a good deal; has contracted a bad habit of boasting of his business, and his personal exploits to every one whom he meets, as though he feared that he would be considered an insignificant personage if he did not sound his own praises. We hope our Oregon exchanges will pass the scamp along.

THE MINT.—We learn from reliable authority (?) that several persons, either belonging to the Dalles or interested there in some way, and also a late wagon master at Fort Boise, are insisting that the Dalles is the proper place for the Mint, and are working for that end. Of course, it is natural they should, but it is expected that the wishes of the disinterested masses of people in the upper country will influence the result.

A soldier who was reading inscriptions on the transparences in the Democratic procession, in Trenton, N. J., discovering nothing inscribed thereon but abuse of the President of the United States, and insults to our Government, he turned to a companion and exclaimed—"I say, Jim, this is the first rebel raid we've seen since we left Virginia.

A curious case is about to be tried in Paris. A lady is to prove in open court that she is not the mother of her children, or rather the children which her husband attributes to her. This matter is to be demonstrated by decisive arguments, the lady herself demanding to plead. It is said that amusing revelations will be made.

INDIANS AND HALF BREEDS.—We call attention to "An Act to prevent Indians and half-breeds from running at large," &c., which is of interest to all communities that have Indians in their midst, and provides heavy penalties for tampering with them unlawfully.

Mint Memorial.

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States, in Congress Assembled: The Memorial of the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Oregon, would respectfully represent that the interests of this State as well as the citizens generally on the Pacific coast north of California, would be better subserved and promoted by the establishment of a Branch Mint at the City of Portland, in Multnomah county, in this State, than by its location at any other point in this State, or in either of the adjoining Territories.

Wherefore your memorialists would respectfully pray your honorable bodies to so amend the act of Congress, establishing said Branch Mint at Dalles City, in this State, as to locate said Mint at the said City of Portland. And as in duty bound will ever pray, &c.

The snow at Ruby City is about twelve inches deep, and on the hills this side about 18 inches.—Idaho Statesman.

EXCITEMENT AT NEW ORLEANS.

Beauregard on the way to the City with a Large Force.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 15.—A gentleman from Sherman's headquarters at Kingston says: The [illegible] is by this time some distance on the war path. The army consists of the 14th Corps, Jeff. C. Davis; 15th Corps, Osterhaus; 17th Corps, Blair; 20th, Slocum—15,000 cavalry and Kilpatrick's brigade of artillery, making a total force of 60,000; 50,000 splendidly and well supplied with every appliance of war. All public buildings, depots, manufactories, etc., at Atlanta have been rendered worthless. Railroad north of the city and all defensive works were destroyed. There is [illegible] no turning back. Nothing is left behind of value to the enemy.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—An entertainment was given to Gen. Butler last evening at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. He announced he would leave for the army in the field to-day. He urged that the olive branch be once more extended to the rebels, and if again refused, a sharp and vigorous war be prosecuted. He thought that bounties should consist of lands conquered from the rebels, which should be equitably divided, and their owners driven from the country forever.

The Express has the following: "There has been mysterious rumors of a peace treaty on the streets to-day. The speech of Butler is regarded as very significant. It is believed in some quarters there is really something on foot. The move of Sherman's army is supposed to have something to do with it. The story runs as follows: Some time since there was a conclave at Macon of the leading men in Georgia, including Gov. Brown and Vice President Stephens. An embassador was sent to Washington authorized to assure the President that Georgia would secede from the Confederacy if Sherman would march through Georgia and take possession of Charleston and Savannah. Lincoln's response was made about three weeks since. He was quite ready, but would do it after the election. It is contended that this is the real secret of Sherman's move and that it is done with a view of bringing back not only Georgia but North Carolina and Alabama. There is a rumor on the street that Augusta has been captured.

The Tribune's special says: Captain Collins will be sustained by the Government. Foreign powers may recognize these pirates as belligerents, but the United States will take the position that to be such they must belong to some recognized, responsible Government. The confession of Marquis Abrantes, Brazilian Minister of Foreign Affairs, that the Alabama has her chief rendezvous upon islands which are dependencies of Brazil, is remembered.

There is a rumor from the army of the Potomac of the evacuation of Petersburg.

CAIRO, Nov. 19.—Officers from Memphis report that General Canby died from the effects of his wounds, while en route to New Orleans.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Richmond papers say that Sherman left Atlanta on the 12th, moving Northward, though they doubtless mean by that, Eastward, on a Northerly line.

The Herald's New Orleans correspondent says our forces have been withdrawn from the port on the Atchafalaya river, not being needed there any longer.

Important information has been gained by scouting expeditions near Natchez.

Four blockade running schooners, laden with cotton, have been captured off the Texan coast.

The Tribune's special dispatch says: Owing to the continued prostration of Secretary Stanton, and the wide-spread desire of the people, the President has tendered the position to Gen. Butler. It is said that the General, for the present at least, declines the honor.

It is asserted that Admiral Farragut is to be Secretary of the Navy.

It is said that our Government will insist upon reparation or apology from the Brazilian Government for firing on the United States flag. If our cruisers were contravening her laws, she knows where to find us and how to adjudicate her claims, but the act of opening fire upon our vessels will be rebuked.

The city is full of rumors concerning Sherman's movements; and there is a panic in gold, which sold down to 210. Most of the rumors are vague, only stating that Sherman has met with a great success, but are not traceable to good authority.

The steamship Fulton, from Port Royal the 15th, brings news that a fleet of steamers from Fortress Monroe, with 10,500 rebel prisoners, about to be exchanged, arrived at Hilton Head. The 17th November was duly celebrated at Port Royal, that being the anniversary of our capture of that place.

The Richmond papers of the 16th are filled with speculations as to Sherman's movements, and express the conviction that he is threatening Mobile.

The Post's correspondent says the Richmond Whig of the 16th states that Sherman sent a large part of his army towards Selma, Alabama, indicating a movement upon Mobile. The Whig also demands that the rebel authorities call out a special force of 75,000 men, to annihilate Sherman and Sheridan, and thinks this can be done. It assails the rebel Congress for incompetency.

The Raleigh Confederate announces the evacuation of Washington, North Carolina, and its occupation by Federal troops. The safe arrival of the Tallahassee at Wilmington is also announced.

The Herald's special correspondent with Sheridan says the enemy are still in considerable force between Fisher's Hill and Strasburg. His cavalry are hovering along our front. Our new position has been greatly strengthened by the erection of breastworks.

The Richmond Examiner of the 15th contains the following dispatch, dated Augusta, Ga., Nov. 14th: A fight occurred at Rough-and-Ready, and south of Atlanta, between the State troops and the Yankees, in which the latter were driven back. The latest news from Atlanta says the city was evacuated on Saturday, the 12th. The Montgomery (Ala.) Mail has news to the 10th, which left Hood at Tuscumbia, Alabama. Two of his divisions had crossed the Tennessee river, and the impression was that the rest would soon cross.

The Herald's special dispatch says: There is every probability that commissioners will soon be appointed by the President, if they have not already begun to offer peace proposals to the rebels. The Herald also says: We have important intelligence from the Shenandoah valley. The rebels have again fallen rapidly back toward Staunton. Deserters who came into our lines say Early's force in the vicinity of Fisher's Hill broke camp on the 13th and commenced a retrograde movement on the same evening. His [illegible] along Cedar Creek have also been abandoned, leaving, apparently, a small detachment of cavalry in Sheridan's front. Early's entire army in the valley is estimated at [illegible]; several thousand being unarmed conscripts, whom he has recently gobbled up, and whom he expected to supply with weapons by capturing them from Sheridan's men.

HEAD-QUARTERS ARMY OF POTOMAC, Nov. 15.—A sharp fight between the pickets occurred last night at ten o'clock and lasted an hour, without any definite result.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—The Herald's special dispatch says: The reported capture of Augusta, by Sherman, is [illegible] by the [illegible] authorities as a canard, [illegible] no information [illegible] for the rumor. Even at Sherman's marching in that direction [illegible] not had time to reach Augusta, and there is no expectation of hearing from him for several days yet, except through rebel news [illegible]. The [illegible] special dispatch says Butler has an interview with the President to-day. It is expected he has been assigned the command of an important expedition, and will not return to the army of the James river. His speech in New York was warmly commended. The Richmond papers say Sherman was at Atlanta on the 9th.

PORTLAND, ME., Nov. 18.—The U. S. Revenue Cutter Mahoning, Capt. Webster, reports that on going into Castine, Maine, last Sunday, she was [illegible] lately, which [illegible] half a [illegible] at the [illegible] and the [illegible] Harbor.

HALIFAX, N. S. [illegible] states that the pirate [illegible] Fathom [illegible] captured [illegible]

[illegible]

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—The [illegible] special [illegible] at Corinth, Miss. [illegible] Ala., his camp extending [illegible] the river as far as [illegible] Forrest and Wheeler [illegible] that on the night of the 4th [illegible] a battery of [illegible] opposite Johnsonville and the next morning [illegible] and seven transports. [illegible] shelled the town for forty-eight hours, and then left. Meanwhile a portion of Wheeler's cavalry appeared south of the fort, but finding it strong and well garrisoned they returned to [illegible]. During the shelling every barge [illegible]. Only two were burned.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—The Commercial's special dispatch says: Late Richmond papers have been received. They show great anxiety concerning Sherman's movements. [illegible] at Washington [illegible] while Hood was in his rear, they regard as showing that he had no fears of the rebel General's movements, but is prepared to carry out some new plan on a gigantic scale. It is [illegible] here that the rebels are entirely unprepared for this grand coup of Sherman, and have perpetrated a great blunder in sending Hood to invade Tennessee.

The Post's special dispatch says there are well-defined rumors that General Butler's New York speech foreshadows the policy of the Administration.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—The Richmond Whig contains rumors that Hood took Decatur, Ala., and captured a garrison of [illegible] of whom were colored, on the 5th. A rebel attack on Huntsville, Ala., is also reported.

The Montgomery (Ala.) Mail of the 7th [illegible] an early advance on Augusta and Macon by Sherman.

The Richmond Examiner ridicules the idea of any such movement.

The rebel newspapers contain Forrest's account of the destruction of Union gunboats and transports on the Tennessee river at Johnsonville. He claims to have burnt 4 gunboats, 11 steamers, and 20 barges, together with an immense amount of valuable property. This cannot be believed. [illegible] the report claims that a good portion of the immense stores at [illegible] and we have since learned that Johnsonville is still in the hands of the Union forces, and that a small portion of the army's supplies there were burned.

The bombardment of Charleston and Sumter is reported to be still continued with steadiness and severity. Ten Union war vessels and 78 transports are reported at Hilton Head.

Richmond papers of the 11th say that on the 9th Hood was at Tuscumbia, Ala., and Sherman was at Atlanta.

The Herald's Washington dispatch says the Secretary of the Treasury has decided to anticipate the payment of the January interest, in gold interest bonds.

General Butler and staff have gone to the army of the Potomac. No guerrillas have been seen East of the Bull Run mountains since the 9th.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Richmond papers of the 15th make no mention of Sherman's movements, which fact is regarded here as an evidence that he has [illegible]

[illegible] question of arming slaves was discussed.

It is reported that the President contemplates [illegible] amnesty.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 17.—[illegible]

[illegible]

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 18.—A Cairo special says: New Orleans papers of the [illegible] state that the rebel General Slaughter, at Brownsville, has been reinforced by 3,000 men and 120 pieces of artillery, and [illegible] an attack.

The New Orleans Times says that Canby's wound is not so serious as at first reported, but will confine him to his room for a few weeks. Considerable excitement exists in consequence of a report that Beauregard was marching against this city, with a large force from Corinth. Every preparation is being made for the defense of the city.

Last Night's Dispatches.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The defeat of Gen. Gillem is announced in the Richmond papers of the 16th by a dispatch from Gen. Lee. He says: On [illegible] the 13th, Breckinridge turned Bull's Gap, and when the enemy attempted to return at [illegible] on the 14th, he struck their column and routed it, taking several hundred prisoners, ten stands of colors and six pieces of artillery, with caissons and horses complete; also the ambulances with medical supplies.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 19.—A dispatch from Curtis' Headquarters to the 8th, says: We have just concluded the pursuit of Price, whose rear guard crossed the Arkansas river under fire of our guns. He left another of his guns and his own carriage, which with other arms and equipments, had fallen into our hands.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20.—Private dispatches of the 19th quote gold in New York at 224.

Arrived, steamship Moses Taylor, from San Juan; also, ship Minnehaha, [illegible] days from London.

Resolutions of Co. E, 1st Oregon Cavalry.

At a meeting of the members of Company E, First Oregon Cavalry, held at Fort Dalles on the 10th instant, the following resolutions were presented and adopted unanimously:

Resolved, That the thanks of the members of this company be and are hereby tendered to G. Donnell, State Senator for Wasco county, and his collaborers in the late Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon, for the unbounded interest they have manifested in the welfare of the soldiers of Oregon, by appropriating to them an additional pay of five dollars per month during their enlistment.

Resolved, That in so doing, that honorable body has placed us, as citizens of Oregon, under renewed obligations to the State of our adoption, and has, in no small degree, recognized the dangers, toils, and hardships incident to a soldier's life.

Resolved, That as this company is now—after three years' service on the frontiers of Oregon, Washington, and Idaho—upon the eve of being mustered out of the service of the United States, and we, who are soon to cast aside the soldier's garb, and resume our respective positions in the arena of civil life, do hereby pledge ourselves to act in the future as in the past—the past of good and loyal citizens of these United States—to stand by this Government, regardless of party lines or party performances, and we are ever willing, with our lives and our property, to assist in the maintenance of this Government at all hazards.

Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing resolutions be sent to the weekly OREGONIAN and Mountaineer for publication.

After the adoption of the foregoing resolutions by the entire company, a vote of thanks was tendered to the Chairman and Secretary.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

U. S.
Special Income Tax.
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN TO THE PUBLIC, that by a joint resolution of Congress, approved June 30th, 1864, a special income duty of five per cent. was levied upon the income for the year 1863, in addition to the annual income assessed in May last. The special income list of taxes, for the Third Division of the Oregon District, (containing the county of Multnomah,) is now open for public examination at my Office, No. 100 Front Street, Portland, for ten days from date. All who apply for abatement of taxes must make their statement in detail, showing from what source derived, and for what [illegible] expended, in order that the Assessor may arrive at a correct statement of their income. If any fraudulent returns are made, 100 per cent. addition will be added to the tax. No abatement allowed after the expiration of the ten days.

A Buried Siwash Maintaining Dignity.—We have been induced by many [illegible] the ones to [illegible] that civilized light was [illegible] starved representatives of the [illegible] chs of the forest still lingering in this vicinity but on Saturday our opinion changed somewhat to witness a huge specimen [illegible] in his efforts to maintain the dignity of his [illegible] to the amount of several [illegible] While he sat leisurely waiting [illegible] for Mrs [illegible] stuck in the hands her [illegible] was packing to the levee on Salmon street [illegible] where they had [illegible] he would [illegible] the blanket over his shoulders with a shrug at the bleak winds [illegible] his pipe [illegible] smoke [illegible] was loaded the stately representative to [illegible] the forward [illegible] where [illegible] the paddles were [illegible] the [illegible] and they shot off in the direction [illegible] the old fellow apparently enjoying in the highest degree his [illegible] the mightiness is great [illegible] where are all the bards who have sung the praises [illegible] your magnanimity in the [illegible] ends of poets

Their [illegible] and little ones,
Especially the latter two [illegible] the poor Indian [illegible] himself [illegible] nation passing away soon to be known only in history.

Bricks and Bullion.—There was quite an arrival of bricks and bullion from the interior on Saturday night. Owyhee, Boise Basin, Kootenai and John Day's mines were each represented with their distinct features of bricks [illegible] and the [illegible] was easily distinguishable. The Kootenai dust makes a very handsome brick but the finest brick of all—the prettiest gold—was one worth $3 000 [illegible] Assayed on Saturday by Tracy & King. It is the results of a crushing of ore out of the Rockfell vein of the Rockfell [illegible] Had we the mint in operation here now, at least $1,000 000 worth of bullion would be deposited within the next twelve hours for coinage. As it is there is not sufficient coin to buy the bullion offered and bricks are exchanged for merchandise in numerous instances to very large amounts. The city is [illegible] with merchants, miners, and traders from the mineral districts

Circuit Court.—On Saturday last J. F. McCoy, Esq. and Wm. McArther, Esq., were admitted to practice at law in the Circuit Court. The cause of John B. Garrison vs. City of Portland was decided in favor of plaintiff and judgment rendered for the sum of $4[illegible]6. [illegible] N. Taylor vs Columbia Transportation Co., suit for services as Captain of the steamboat Pioneer, verdict for plaintiff in the sum of $362. The Grand Jury presented thirty two indictments—one for assault with deadly weapon, one or two for gambling, other for selling liquor on Sunday and having disposed of the business before them were discharged. Special venire facias was issued for twenty four men from the county to form a jury to try the case of the State vs. Madison Bledsoe to-day.

A Horse for General Phil Sheridan.—The old neighbors of Major General Sheridan living in Yamhill county, have undertaken the project of furnishing him with the best Black Hawk Horse that can be purchased in the State of Oregon to forward to the General in the field. Several hundred dollars have already been raised for the purpose, and there is no doubt but the present will be purchased as soon as it can [illegible] upon. This movement speaks well for the esteem felt by former associates for the illustrious man who is now so energetically leading the hosts who are fighting to preserve the Union, under the badge so lately laid aside by George B. McClellan. May he ever ride on to victory that shall bring us peace.

Firemen's Election.—The names of the firemen's candidates for election to the position of Chief Engineer and two Assistants are given in another column. Mr. Buchtel is the present incumbent of the office of Chief and has right worthily filled the position for a year past. His re-election is beyond a doubt. There are three persons running for the two positions of Assistants. The highest vote will elect the 1st Assistant, the next highest vote the 2d Assistant, which leave one to suffer the fate of McClellan—defeat. This is emphatically a "Fireman's Election," as none but qualified members of the department are entitled to vote. Each of the Engine Companies is represented on the ticket, and the election will take place on the 1st Monday in December.

Death at the Hospital.—A Strubbe, a native of France, died at the Hospital in East Portland on Friday and was buried on Saturday last. He was a stranger in a strange land and had but a partial understanding of the American language yet he was a type setter and had worked many years on this paper. He was quite an aged man and has gradually sunk away into the tomb. We [illegible] to think that he had seen better days than his declining years afforded him, but we are unable to say whether he has left any more than the common ties of brotherhood in this country.

Theatrical.—Willamette Theatre was well attended—in fact filled—on Saturday evening, to witness "Medea" and "The Jealous Wife," in both of which plays Mrs. Julia Dean Hayne sustained the leading characters, well supported by Mr. G. B. Waldron, Mr. B. S. Mortimer, Mrs. [illegible], Miss Douglas and the entire strength of the company. To-night Mrs. Hayne will perform her great character of Camille and the programme for the evening is replete with interest.

The Sabbath Day.—"Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy," is a scriptural command which has been much more kept in the breach than the observance in Portland, but quiet reigned to a respectable degree yesterday, and last evening not a hurdy gurdy was to be seen, musical concert saloons were closed, and very few, probably not a dozen places were open where men could obtain their drinks. The Grand Jury have adjourned, however, and we cannot expect this state of things to last long.

Low Water.—Capt. Wolfe of the O. S. N. Co's steamer Wilson G. Hunt, informs us that the stage of water in the Columbia was less on Saturday than he has observed for several years. A large rock near the mouth of Sandy stood out very prominently that has not been seen but twice before in seven years. This most likely is the result of a cold snap in the upper country, which has firmly congealed many of the smaller tributaries of the noble stream.

Drugged and Robbed.—A Mr. Simon Lundey was taken to rooms at the New Columbian on Thursday morning in an insensible condition and his life has been somewhat critical ever since until yesterday when his faculties partially revived. It appears that he was a victim of drugged liquors, and was robbed in this city on Wednesday night, at what particular locality, however, we are unable to learn.

Fire.—Mr. W. H. Maxwell was awakened by a fire in his residence, corner of Second and Washington streets, in this city, on Saturday morning at an early hour. The flames were spreading and gaining a destructive element when the alarm was given and a few neighbors rushed in [illegible] in putting it out, with not more than $100 damage. The fire is unaccountable and is [illegible] to have been the work of an incendiary.

Trial for Burning.—The trial of Madison Bledsoe, for the [illegible] of Charles [illegible] in this city recently will commence [illegible] Court before Judge [illegible] D. Shattuck [illegible] to-day.

Passengers.—The steamer Wilson G. Hunt, Capt. Wolfe, on Saturday brought a large number of passengers from points above the Cascades and a few teams of the remaining portion of the present year's emigration from States east of the Missouri river.

The Steamer George S. Wright.—The steamer George S. Wright, [illegible] F. Lewis Commander, is advertised to leave for Victoria on Wednesday evening next.

County Business.—The County Commissioners [illegible] the [illegible] counties [illegible] Multnomah for those enlisting [illegible] to all of the Governor [illegible] in other parts of the State [illegible] work with according [illegible] to the [illegible] quotas

Robbery of the Overland Stage—Daring Feat of Road Agents.—[illegible] in Montana [illegible] the [illegible] their [illegible] the return of the [illegible] stage with one wounded passenger having [illegible] about [illegible] from the [illegible] day morning, with W. R. Parks [illegible] Dur[illegible] and John Harmer as passengers and John Early driver. They had got [illegible] from this place and just up [illegible] when the driver was startled [illegible] appearing in the [illegible] all [illegible] at him [illegible] the driver [illegible] his team. Mr. Early remonstrated that it was unnecessary. [illegible] the [illegible] the [illegible] the hands of Early and [illegible] but he [illegible] having any of the plunder [illegible] after they [illegible] The passengers were then taken out of the coach one by one [illegible] what money they had and their arms. The coach was guarded with shot guns by one of the party while this ceremony was being performed. The amount of treasure taken from the passengers as near as we could learn was—from Dur[illegible] $[illegible] in currency and $[illegible] in dust. Harmer says that they took from him $500 in currency and about $[illegible] in dust and coin. From Parks they got $160 in currency and about $100 in [illegible]—making in all $[illegible] in currency and $[illegible] in coin. After searching the stage the driver was allowed to [illegible] and all were told [illegible] to [illegible] the next station. At the time of the first alarm Parks and Harmer who were on the [illegible] drew their pistols for defense. Harmer cocked his while in the act of drawing it and going [illegible] shot Parks in the [illegible] Early asked the privilege to take the wounded passenger back to town [illegible] he was ordered to proceed. He drove on a few miles and taking a new road crossed the river and came back to town. All the robbers were masked so that not one of them could be recognized. The passengers saw but three in the gang but Early thought he saw two others squatting behind some sage [illegible] but the darkness [illegible] One of the gang [illegible] while the searching was being made "Why don't them other fellers [illegible] up?" indicating there were more than three. They were evidently disappointed at their [illegible] their enterprise [illegible] one of them saying "you are a d—d poor crowd. Driver, you ought to be ashamed of hauling [illegible] poor a crowd." They also told Parks that they knew he had more money than they could find. Mr. Parks is happy to state for the benefit of the gang that though in a fainting condition from the loss of blood he was still able to secrete a purse [illegible] in the [illegible] and a slug worth $295 in his clothes while they were searching the other passengers. The general supposition is that the robbers came immediately back to town in advance of the stage and that they are circulating in our midst [illegible] to detect them is not very [illegible] On the way back and within a mile of town Early saw something in the road that attracted his attention which turned out to be the pistol sheath of Parks evidently having been dropped by one of the gang. Parks' wound is not dangerous and he is doing well. So thoroughly were they concealed that there is little hope that those offenders will be brought to justice.

P. S.—Just as we were going to press we learn that two men have been arrested on suspicion of having taken part in the robbery. The passenger Harmer is one of the parties.—Idaho States man Nov 10th.

NOTICE.

THE attention of the public is called to the following Act, passed by the Legislative Assembly of this State at the last session:

An Act [illegible] Indians and half bloods from [illegible] running at large and to punish white [illegible] the Reservation.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon: It shall be unlawful for any person to entice, induce or persuade any Indian or half breed who habitually resides with Indians, to leave the Indian Reservation or territory where such Indian or half breed belongs, or to harbor or conceal such Indian or half breed, or to [illegible] or encourage or in any way assist such Indian or half breed to escape from [illegible] or evade the agent or superintendent having charge of the tribe unless such Indian or half breed is absent by the written consent of the superintendent or agent aforesaid.

Sec. 2. Any person who is guilty of a violation of the first section of this act shall be liable to a fine of twenty five dollars for the first offense and [illegible] fifty [illegible] one hundred for each subsequent offense, to be recovered in any [illegible] circuit or county judge [illegible] State.

Sec. [illegible] All fines [illegible] under this act shall [illegible] making the complaint and the other half to the common school fund of the county where the offense was committed. [illegible] shall be construed to interfere with [illegible] rights reserved [illegible] treaties with the United States.

Sec. 4. In order that the white settlements may be promptly relieved of the presence of vagabond Indians, this act shall be in force from and after its approval by the Governor.

Approved Oct 21, 1864.

The efforts hitherto made by the Superintendent and the several Agents to rid the community of straggling Indians have often been thwarted by thoughtless or evil disposed persons who through [illegible] with the Indians have acquired an influence over them. This law affords a remedy for the evil, and the Indian Department will endeavor to have it rigidly enforced. The co-operation [illegible] assistance of citizens are respectfully requested.

Information of the whereabouts of vagabond Indians may be forwarded to the Superintendent's office at Salem and will receive prompt attention.

A BURLY SIWASH MAINTAINING DIGNITY.—We have been induced by many ingenious theories to believe that civilized light was dawning across the half starved representatives of the proud man of the forest, still lingering in this vicinity, but on Saturday our opinion changed somewhat to witness a huge specimen of siwash in his efforts to maintain the dignity of his race by [illegible] his klootchman to load [illegible] with flour to the amount of several hundred pounds. While he [illegible] for Mrs. Siwash to [illegible] the loads her dusky sister was taking to the [illegible] from a store where they had been [illegible], he would draw the blanket over his shoulders with a shrug at the bleak winds and quaff from his pipe a curly [illegible] smoke [illegible] was led the sturdy representative [illegible] in the forward part where a place had been left [illegible] and the [illegible] were handled by the squaws and they sat off in the direction of their [illegible], the old fellow apparently enjoying in the highest degree his [illegible]. [illegible] mightiness is great, where are all the bards who have sung the praises that the Indian lost felt of magnanimity in the [illegible] respect of the [illegible] of poesy?

Their ponies, wives and little ones [illegible] especially the latter two, are [illegible] small [illegible] the poor Indian who is himself a [illegible] passing away [illegible] to be known only in history.

BRICKS AND BULLION.—There was quite an arrival of bricks and bullion from the interior on Saturday night. Owyhee, Boise Basin, Kootenai and John Day's mines were each represented with their distinct features of bricks, unmixed and [illegible] was easily distinguishable. The Kootenai dust makes a very handsome brick, but the finest brick of all—the prettiest gold—was one worth $3,095 21, assayed on Saturday by Tracy & King, from the results of a crushing of ore out of the Rockfellow vein of the Rockfellow [illegible]. Had we the mint in operation here now at least $1,000,000 worth of bullion would be deposited within the next twelve hours for coinage. As it is, there is not sufficient coin to buy the bullion offered, and bricks are exchanged for merchandise in numerous instances to very large amounts. The city is crowded with merchants, miners, and traders from the mineral districts.

CIRCUIT COURT.—On Saturday last J. F. McCoy, Esq., and Wm. McArther, Esq., were admitted to practice at law in the Circuit Court. The cause of John B. Garrison vs. City of Portland was decided in favor of plaintiff and judgment rendered for the sum of $4,836. G. N. Taylor vs. Columbia Transportation Co., suit for services as Captain of the steamboat Pioneer; verdict for plaintiff in the sum of $362. The Grand Jury presented thirty two indictments, one for assault with deadly weapon, one or two for gaming, others for selling liquor on Sunday, and having disposed of the business before them were discharged. Special venire facias was issued for twenty four men from the county to form a jury to try the case of the State vs. Madison Bledsoe to-day.

A HORSE FOR GENERAL PHIL SHERIDAN.—The old neighbors of Major General Sheridan, living in Yamhill county, have undertaken the project of furnishing him with the best Black Hawk Horse that can be purchased in the State of Oregon, to forward to the General in the field. Several hundred dollars have already been raised for the purpose, and there is no doubt but the present will be purchased as soon as it can be hit upon. This movement speaks well for the esteem felt by former associates for the illustrious man who is now so energetically leading the hosts who are fighting to preserve the Union, under the badge so lately laid aside by George B. McClellan. May he ever ride on to victory that shall bring us peace.

FIREMENS' ELECTION.—The names of the firemen's candidates for election to the position of Chief Engineer and two Assistants are given in another column. Mr. Buchtel is the present incumbent of the office of Chief and has right worthily filled the position for a year past. His re-election is beyond a doubt. There are three persons running for the two positions of Assistants. The highest vote will elect the 1st Assistant, the next highest vote the 2d Assistant, which leave one to suffer the fate of McClellan—defeat. This is emphatically a "Fireman's Election," as none but qualified members of the department are entitled to vote. Each of the Engine Companies is represented on the ticket, and the election will take place on the 1st Monday in December.

DEATH AT THE HOSPITAL.—A. Strubbe, a native of France, died at the Hospital in East Portland on Friday and was buried on Saturday last. He was a stranger in a strange land and had but a partial understanding of the American language. He was a type setter, and had worked many hours on this paper. He was quite an aged man and has gradually sunk away into the tomb. We are led to think that he had seen better days than his declining years afforded him, but we are unable to say whether he has left any more than the common ties of brotherhood in this country.

THEATRICAL.—Willamette Theatre was well attended—in fact filled—on Saturday evening to witness "Medea" and "The Jealous Wife," in both of which plays Mrs. Julia Dean Hayne sustained the leading characters, well supported by Mr. G. B. Waldron, Mr. B. S. Mortimer, Mrs. Dettler, Miss Douglas, and the entire strength of the company. To night Mrs. Hayne will perform her great character of Camille, and the programme for the evening is replete with interest.

THE SABBATH DAY.—"Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy," is a scriptural command which has been much more kept in the breach than the observance in Portland, but quiet reigned to a respectable degree yesterday, and last evening not a hurdy gurdy was to be seen, musical concert saloons were closed and very few, probably not a dozen places, were open where men could obtain their drinks. The Grand Jury have adjourned, however, and we cannot expect this state of things to last long.

LOW WATER.—Capt. Wolfe of the O. S. N. Co's steamer Wilson G. Hunt, informs us that the stage of water in the Columbia was less on Saturday than he has observed for several years. A large rock near the mouth of Sandy stood out very prominently, that has not been seen but twice before in seven years. This most likely is the result of a cold snap in the upper country, which has firmly congealed many of the smaller tributaries of the noble stream.

DRUGGED AND ROBBED.—A Mr. Simon Lundey was taken to rooms at the New Columbian on Thursday morning in an insensible condition and his life has been somewhat critical ever since until yesterday when his faculties partially revived. It appears that he was a victim of drugged liquors and was robbed in this city on Wednesday night in what particular locality, however, we are unable to learn.

FIRE.—Mr. W. I. Mayfield was awakened by a fire in his residence, corner of Second and Washington streets, in this city, on Saturday morning at an early hour. The flames were spreading and forming a destructive element when the alarm was given and a few neighbors rushed in and assisted in putting it out, with not more than [illegible] a loss. The fire is unaccountable and it is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

TRIAL OF BLEDSOE.—The trial of Madison Bledsoe for the murder of Charles Cash in this city recently will commence to-day [illegible] before Judge E. D. Shattuck at 9 o'clock, [illegible] day.

PASSENGERS.—The steamer Wilson G. Hunt, Capt. Wolfe, on Saturday brought a large number of passengers from points above the Cascades and a few teams of the remaining portion of the present year's emigration from States east of the Missouri river.

THE STEAMER GEORGE S. WRIGHT.—The steamer George S. Wright, S. F. Lewis commander, is advertised to leave for Victoria on Wednesday evening next.

COUNTY BOUNTIES.—The County Commissioners should [illegible] some action concerning county bounties in Multnomah for those enlisting under the late call of the Governor. The [illegible] have [illegible] in other parts of the State and [illegible] work with according benefit to the filling of the quotas.

[illegible] OF THE OVERLAND STAGE—[illegible] FEAT OF ROAD AGENTS.—[illegible] Tenlers [illegible] the [illegible] in the [illegible] the [illegible] the [illegible] the [illegible] of [illegible] by [illegible] of the [illegible] stage, with one wounded passenger having been robbed about 34 miles from [illegible]. The stage started from the [illegible] last Thursday morning, with W. R. Park, [illegible] Durbell and [illegible] Harmer as passengers, and John Fisk driver. [illegible] had [illegible] miles from this place [illegible] a hill when the driver was startled by the halt [illegible] of the [illegible] and [illegible] appearing in the [illegible] four [illegible] the team and [illegible] each side of the coach, all with [illegible] presented at him, one of the [illegible] "halt!" One who appeared to be the leader [illegible] ordered the driver to [illegible] his team. Mr. Fasly remonstrated that it was unnecessary. A command from him to remain [illegible] to hand the [illegible] to [illegible] the [illegible] and [illegible] the robbers then [illegible] the [illegible] of Fasly and [illegible] both [illegible] having [illegible] the plunder they were after they [illegible]. The passengers were then taken [illegible] the coach [illegible] they [illegible] and their arms. The coach was guarded with shot guns by one of the party while this ceremony was being performed. The amount of treasure taken from the passengers as near as we could learn was—from Durbell, [illegible] in currency and $500 in dust. Harmer says that they took from him $500 in currency and about $30 in dust and from Parks they got $160 in currency and about $100 in coin—making in all $560 in currency and $110 in coin. After searching the stage the driver was allowed to hitch up his team, and all were unloaded and ordered to drive to the next station. At the time of the first alarm Parks and Harmer, who were on the same seat, drew their pistols for defense. Harmer cocked his while in the act of drawing it, and going off shot Parks in the hip. Fasly asked the privilege to take the wounded passenger back to town but he was ordered to proceed. He drove on a few miles and taking a new road crossed the river and came back to town. All the robbers were masked so that not one of them could be recognized. The passengers saw but three in the gang, but Fasly thought he saw two others squatting behind some sage brush, but the darkness made it uncertain. One of the gang also said while the searching was being made, "Why don't them other fellers come up?" Indicating there were more than three. They were evidently disappointed at the result of their enterprise, financially, and all of them saying, "you are a d—d poor crowd." "Driver you ought to be ashamed of hauling so poor a crowd." They also told Parks that they knew he had more money than they could find. Mr. Parks is happy to state for the benefit of the gang that though in a fainting condition from the loss of blood he was still able to secrete a purse of [illegible] in gold in the coach and a slug worth $225 in his clothes while they were searching the other passengers. The general supposition is that the robbers came immediately back to town in advance of the stage and that they are circulating in our midst, but to detect them is not very easy. On the way back and within a mile of town Fasly saw something in the road that attracted his attention, which turned out to be the pistol sheath of Parks, evidently having been dropped by one of the gang. Parks wound is not dangerous and he is doing well. So thoroughly were they concealed that there is little hope that these offenders will be brought to justice.

P. S.—Just as we were going to press we learn that two men have been arrested on suspicion of having taken part in the robbery. The passenger Harmer is one of the parties.—Idaho Statesman Nov. 10th.

NOTICE.

THE attention of the public is called to the following act passed by the Legislative Assembly of this State at the last session.

An Act to prevent Indians and half bloods from unlawfully running at large, and to punish white persons for enticing them from the Reservation.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon: It shall be unlawful for any person to entice, induce or persuade any Indian or half breed who habitually resides with Indians to leave the Indian Reservation or territory where such Indian or half breed belongs, or to harbor or conceal such Indian or half breed, or to countenance or encourage in any way, assist such Indian or half breed to escape from, elude or evade the agent or superintendent having charge of the tribe, unless such Indian or half breed is absent by the written consent of the superintendent or agent aforesaid.

Sec. 2. Any person who is guilty of a violation of the first section of this act shall be liable to a fine of twenty-five dollars for the first offense and not less than fifty nor more than one hundred for each subsequent offense, to be recovered in any [illegible] before any justice of the peace in the State.

Sec. 3. All fines collected under this act shall be paid [illegible] half to the person making the complaint, and the other half to the common school fund of the county where the offense was committed. Provided, That nothing in this act shall be construed to interfere with fishing rights reserved to Indians by treaties with the United States.

Sec. 4. In order that the white settlements may be promptly relieved of the presence of vagabond Indians, this act shall be in force from and after its approval by the Governor.

Approved Oct. 21, 1864.

The efforts hitherto made by the Superintendent and the several Agents to rid the community of straggling Indians have often been thwarted by thoughtless or evil disposed persons who through acquaintance with the Indians, have acquired an influence over them. This law affords a remedy for the evil, and the Indian Department will endeavor to have it rigidly enforced. The co-operation and assistance of citizens are respectfully requested.

Information of the whereabouts of vagabond Indians may be [illegible] to the Superintendent's office at Salem and will receive prompt attention.

A Turkish Love Affair.—The ancient laws of Cos do not reward female chastity, but they discountenance, in a very singular manner, any cruelty in females towards their admirers. While Dr. Clarke was on that island, an instance occurred in which the fatal termination of a love affair occasioned a trial for what the Mahommedan lawyers called homicide by an intermediate cause. The case was as follows: A young man desperately in love with a girl of Stanchio, eagerly sought to marry her, but his proposals were rejected. In consequence of this rejection he bought some poison and destroyed himself. The Turkish police instantly arrested the father of the young woman, as the cause, by implication, of the man's death. Under the fifth species of homicide, he became therefore amenable for this act of suicide. When the cause came before the magistrate, it was urged literally by the accusers that if he, the accused, had not had a daughter the deceased would not have fallen in love; consequently he would not have been disappointed; consequently he would not have swallowed poison; consequently he would not have died. But he, the accused, had a daughter, and the deceased had fallen in love, and had been disappointed, and had swallowed poison, and had died. Upon all these counts he was called upon to pay the price of the young man's life; and this being fixed at the sum of eighty piastres, it was accordingly exacted.

Dark Rooms.—American women have a strange mania for dark rooms, but hear what Florence Nightingale, in her notes of nursing, says on the subject:

A dark house is almost always an unhealthy house, always an ill-aired house, always a dirty house. Want of light stops growth, and promises scrofula, rickets, &c., among children. People lose their health in a dark house, and if they get ill, they cannot get well again in it. Three, out of many negligences and ignorances, in managing the health of houses generally, I will here mention as specimens: First—That the female head in charge of any building does not think it necessary to visit every hole and corner of it every day. How can she expect those who are under her to be more careful to maintain her house in a healthy condition than she who is in charge of it? Second—That it is not considered essential to air, to sun, and to clean rooms while uninhabited; while it is simply ignoring the first elementary notion of sanitary things, and laying the ground ready for all kinds of disease. Third—That the door and one window are considered enough to air a room. Don't imagine that, if you who are in charge don't look to those things yourself, those under you will be more careful than you are. It appears as if the part of the mistress was to complain of her servants, and to accept their excuse, not to show them how there need be neither complaints made nor excuses. Such authority ought in every housekeeper who has hitherto clung to dark rooms, to open the window of a correct understanding on the subject.

A Midsummer Holiday.—Kingsley thus declares: "There is no pleasure that I have experienced like a child's midsummer holiday—the time, I mean, when two or three of us used to go away up the brook, and take our dinners with us, and come home at night, tired, dirty, happy, scratched beyond recognition, with a greasy nosegay, three little trout, and one shoe, the other having been used as a boat till it had gone down with all hands out of soundings. Depend upon it, a man never experiences such pleasure or grief after fourteen as he does before, unless in some cases in his first love making, when the sensation is new to him."

Hans Excited.—Several gentlemen were lately discussing the alarming prevalence of the crime of wife desertion, women eloping with other men, &c., when a Teuton, who had been listening with great attention, stept up, and in an excited manner, said: "If my wife runs away mit another man's wife, I will shake him out of her breeches, if she been mine own fader, mein Gott!"

A cooper, finding considerable difficulty in keeping one of the heads of a cask he was finishing in its place, put his son inside to hold the head up. After completing the work to his satisfaction, he was astonished to find his boy inside the cask, and without a possibility of getting out, except through the bung-hole.

A little boy of some five years or thereabouts, says the Boston Transcript, who had been the happy possessor of a gold dollar, the gift of some friend, rose in his place in one of our public school rooms, the day after the recent fall in the price of gold, and queried—"Pleathe ma'am, may I go out and thell my dollar? Ha thayth gold ith down!" He was allowed to go out.

LAWS OF OREGON.

Acts passed at the Third Regular Session of the Legislative Assembly.

An Act to prevent Indians and half-breeds from unlawfully running at large, and to punish white persons for enticing them from the Reservation.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon: It shall be unlawful for any person to entice, induce, or persuade any Indian, or half-breed who habitually resides with Indians, to leave the Indian Reservation or territory where such Indian or half-breed belongs, or to harbor or conceal such Indian or half-breed, or to countenance or encourage, or in any way assist such Indian or half-breed to escape from, elude, or evade the agent or superintendent having charge of the tribe, unless such Indian or half-breed is absent by the written consent of the superintendent or agent aforesaid.

Sec. 2. Any person who is guilty of a violation of the first section of this act shall be liable to a fine of twenty-five dollars for the first offense, and not less than fifty nor more than one hundred for each subsequent offense, to be recovered in any action for debt before any circuit or county judge or justice of the peace in this State.

Sec. 3. All fines collected under this act shall be paid one-half to the person making the complaint, and the other half to the common school fund of the county where the offense was committed; Provided, That nothing in this act shall be construed to interfere with fishing rights reserved to Indians by treaties with the United States.

Sec. 4. In order that the white settlements may be promptly relieved of the presence of vagabond Indians, this act shall be in force from and after its approval by the Governor.

Approved Oct. 21, 1864.

Proclamation.

Whereas, [illegible] Department, for the recruitment of [illegible] and invasion and to chase [illegible]

Now, Therefore, I, Addison C. Gibbs, Governor of the State of Oregon, [illegible]

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand [illegible]
L. S. [illegible] State [illegible]
A. C. Gibbs. [illegible]

Attest: Samuel E. May, Secretary of State.

The following is hereby promulgated [illegible] enrolling, and [illegible] laws, until further notice:

RECRUITING.

The Regiment will be known as the First Infantry, Oregon Volunteers. The field, staff [illegible] commissioned by the Governor. The State will be divided into districts, [illegible] When such district has furnished its quota of men, there will be no draft in the same under this call. Each district will furnish one company.

Commissions will be issued by the Governor to company officers on condition that they shall recruit their respective companies, and be ready to be mustered into the service, within a time hereafter to be named.

A company rendezvous will be established at some central point in each district, and, by agents detailed for that duty, will be retained there until the company is filled and ready to be mustered into service.

The State has provided by law for the payment of a bounty of $150 in State interest-bearing bonds, payable in gold to each volunteer mustered into the service, in addition to the bounties authorized to be paid by the United States. (See statutes 1863-4, page 80.)

The wages of a soldier, in addition, are $16 per month, besides clothing, equipment, rations and allowances, furnished by the United States. (See statutes [illegible] page [illegible])

ORGANIZATION.

The proper organization and strength of a regiment of infantry is as follows:

One (1) colonel, one (1) lieutenant colonel, one (1) major, one (1) adjutant (an extra lieutenant), one (1) quartermaster (an extra lieutenant), one (1) surgeon, two (2) assistant surgeons, one (1) chaplain, one (1) sergeant major, one (1) regimental quartermaster sergeant, one (1) regimental commissary sergeant and one (1) hospital steward. Ten companies form a regiment.

COMPANY OF INFANTRY.

One (1) captain, one (1) 1st lieutenant, one (1) 2d lieutenant, one (1) 1st sergeant, four (4) sergeants, eight (8) corporals, two (2) musicians, one (1) wagoner, sixty-four (64) privates, minimum, and eighty-two (82) privates, maximum, besides the non-commissioned officers.

Musicians may be enlisted in each company, who will be rated and paid as privates.

The following is the estimated

QUOTA OF MEN DUE FROM EACH COUNTY:

|---|---|
| Jackson | 55 |
| Josephine | 25 |

To the County Officers:

Other States have filled with commendable promptitude every call that has been made upon them. The people have a very natural repugnance to a draft, under which every drafted man must serve or furnish a substitute. Under it there must inevitably be some cases of severe but necessary hardship. Opportunity is now given to avoid such a draft. The men are needed promptly, and every consideration of patriotism and of State, local and personal pride requires that you commence promptly and prosecute vigorously the business of obtaining volunteers. The officers of the State feeling the most earnest desire that the entire State should avoid a draft, appeal to the patriotic citizens of your county, through you who are their officer and legal and natural representatives. As guardians of their rights and of their honor, it is incumbent upon you to respond to this appeal by earnest and successful work. Call to your aid the assistance of the active and influential citizens of the county. Let every loyal citizen of the county understand, and, if possible, induce him to realize that he has an immediate and personal interest in the success of your efforts. If necessary, call meetings in your school districts and bring the matter home to every inhabitant. Funds will be needed to pay expenses, not provided for by law. Let subscriptions be circulated in each county for that purpose, & preserve a record of the names of the donors among the archives of the county. In short, the Governor upon whom the requisition is made, expects and justly, that you will respond to this call upon you with an earnestness of purpose which shall insure success. Due notice of the districting of the State will be given as soon as it can be made.

CLEANSE THE BLOOD.

WITH corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood you must be sick all over. It may burst out in pimples or sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed, and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurity of the blood, such as Scrofula or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints and Heart Diseases.

Blood and Liver.

This valuable Medicine is now available to the public for the cure of

[illegible] the bloody battle-field—[illegible] from [illegible] the mountain top [illegible] of the civilized world—is pouring in [illegible] the astonishing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. [illegible]

Ramsburg, Wis., Sept. 16, 1863.

[illegible] I have been in the army hospitals for fourteen months [illegible] At Aiken, Ill. [illegible] bottle of Plantation Bitters. * * * Three [illegible]

South Warsaw, O., July 28, 1863.

* * * One young man, who had been sick and not out of the house for two years with scrofula and erysipelas, [illegible] over $100 without benefit, [illegible]
EDWARD WITH NAB [illegible]

The following is from the manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

Havemeyer Mansion, Fifty-seventh St., New York, August 1, 1863.

Dr. Drake: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs, with most happy effect. One little girl, in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well. * * * Respectfully,
Mrs. O. M. DEVOE.

* * * I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life.
Rev. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y.

* * * Thou wilt send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefited by their use. Thy friend,
ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa.

* * * I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and had to abandon preaching. * * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me.
Rev. J. S. CATHORN, Rochester, N. Y.

* * * Send us twenty-four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which is daily increasing with the guests of our house.
SYKES, CHADWICK & CO.,
Proprietors Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C.

* * * I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect.
G. W. ANDREWS,
Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O.

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business.
H. B. KINGSLEY, Cleveland, O.

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.
C. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway, N. Y.
etc. etc. etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

Notice.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon, is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff, for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label.

Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENERAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivaled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above-mentioned, and also

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY, LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease in any way connected with the disorder or decay of the Procreative Function. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Which will, by excess, weak by nature or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once re-braced, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom or an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor, [illegible] the CONSTITUTION itself, and restored to its normal condition.

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DIScovery of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to over estimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It is to act upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS and GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless until Dr. Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve without a solvent. This, considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr. J. R. Chilton of this city, and Prof. Booth, U. S. Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals, and its use recommended to practitioners. (See "American Medical Monthly," July 1, 1856, page 76.)

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER,

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient receives flesh, strength and color; hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Full directions accompany each bottle.

ALLEN'S

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.
